

What's New in the Hamptons? The Restaurants, Hotels, and Stores to Know for Summer 2023

Memorial Day is here, and with it, the official start to high season in the Hamptons. The upscale boutiques of East Hampton are now open, Duryea's dock is now serving that lobster Cobb salad, and a fleet of Hampton Jitneys are once again cruising down Highway 27A (or, with the area's notorious traffic, more like crawling).

For those heading out east, what's new to do? The short answer: a lot. A buzzy chef sets her sights on Sag Harbor, one of the world's most famous fashion brands swings open its doors at 1 Main Street, and in Montauk, the Surf Lodge has announced one of its most dynamic concert series to date. Below, the most noteworthy hotel, restaurant, shopping, and wellness openings in the Hamptons for the summer of 2023.

Restaurants

Sag Harbor Kitchen (Sag Harbor)

Michelin Award-winning chef Melissa O'Donnell, best known for Salt in New York City, opens her first restaurant out east with Sag Harbor Kitchen. Located in a historic building on Bay Street, it'll serve lobster, seafood, and—this is a bold statement—what they say will be the best burger in the Hamptons. Looks like you'll have to head to Sag Harbor to find out.
